SUBJECT: Herr OTTERBA ced

SECRET

1. A certain OTTERBA had sometime in February or beginning of March telephoned WISCHMANN from Erlangen and stated that he would like to visit WISCHMANN at his home in Berchtesgaden because he had news and letters from WISCHMANN's friends and from relatives of WISCHMANN's wife.

2. During the resultant visit OTTERBA had so many and so varied questions that WISCHMANN came to the conclusion that OTTERBA "must act as an informant or agent for some intelligence agency (Greek or Russian?)". He asked about the addresses of many people whose friend he was supposed to be, noting their addresses in a book; asked about prices on many different articles, production in German factories, destination of the manufactured products, even about the movement of American army units.

3. OTTERBA seems to be coming to Munich very often, travelling under OTTERBA papers.
